

American White Oak Source

The majority of oak for cooperage is sourced from the Eastern Hardwood Region where the climate is ideal for growing tall oak trees with tight, straight grain.

Approx. 80% of this forest is privately owned while the remaining 20% is government owned.

---

SCIENTIFIC NAME “QUERCUS ALBA”

Courtesy of ISC Barrels